

Woman trapped in beach fall

FEARS FOR LIFE OF 23 YEAR-OLD VISITOR

A 23-YEAR-OLD woman was feared trapped when 400 tons of cliff-face slipped onto the beach at Burton Bradstock yesterday (Tuesday).

The emergency services were called to the beach near the Freshwater Holiday Park at around 12.30 pm.

Police, coastguards, the Fire and Rescue Service, the Air Ambulance and the Lyme Regis lifeboat were quickly on the scene.

An eyewitness who did not wish to be named said a young boy, on holiday with his family, had reported that his sister Charlotte was trapped under the landslide.

"He kept saying 'my sister's under there. 'my sister's under there,'" she said. "It was obvious he was going into shock and I told him to get covered up."

"It happened so quickly I didn't hear it because of the sea. It was only when this bloke, a mackerel fisherman, started shouting. Then there was a massive ball of sand and people in the sea started to get out."

A spokesman for the South Western Ambulance Service NHS Trust said several vehicles were despatched to Burton Bradstock, following a number of 999 calls, including the service's Hazardous Area Response Team who are trained to deal with "challenging scenes".

The statement continued: "One person is reported as being trapped and the ambulance service is working in partnership with other agencies on the scene to reach them as soon as possible."

The Dorset Fire and Rescue Service issued a statement that they were working with police and coastguards on the beach.

Three coastguard teams from West Bay, Lyme Bay and Wyke were working at the scene with the coastguard helicopter from Portland searching for possible trapped persons and keeping the public away from the area."

The coastguard spokesperson was unable to comment on there being more than one person trapped. There was at least one other injured person who was treated at the scene.

A specialist Urban Search and Rescue Team from Exeter with dogs was also despatched to the incident.

NEW director at Lyme Regis Museum, David Tucker, comes from a large rural family in Greens Norton, Northamptonshire, and now lives in Dorchester.

He was formerly County Museums Advisor for Dorset but said doing something really significant on the Dorset coast was too tempting to ignore, and he started as director of the award-winning museum in Lyme Regis in May.

He is married to wife Gail, a schoolteacher, and has three children aged 14, 16 and 19.

● WHAT attracted you to the job of director at Lyme Regis Museum?

What really attracted me to Lyme was the potential the museum has to become the heritage site on the Jurassic Coast. Lyme is the home of palaeontology and the museum is built on the site of Mary Anning's house. The museum was endowed over 100 years ago by the Philpot family – who had strong connections with Mary Anning.

● HOW will you be moving ahead with the museum's planned extension and how will this benefit the museum?

I'll be starting work on a bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund in the next few months and we'll make sure that we work with and consult with our partners on the Coast, especially Lyme Regis Development Trust, the Heritage Centre at Charmouth and of course the Jurassic Coast team at Dorset County Council

● WHAT other plans do you have for the future of the museum?

We have to do more to celebrate Lyme's great literary connections – not just Austen and John Fowles, but some of the less well-known links like Tolkien. I'm also keen to do something to develop the story of Lyme's greatest citizen, Thomas Coram, the founder of the Foundlings Hospital.

● WHAT upcoming exhibitions can we look forward to at the museum?

We're considering this at the moment – things have been left in great shape by my predecessor Mary Godwin, and what we need to do is to balance the demands of trying to fund the extension with making changes in the museum. At the moment we have a small exhibition commemorating the life of Di Wiscombe – a Lyme girl who won a gold medal at the Paralympic Games.

● IS there anything in Lyme's history that is of particular interest to you?

I like the story of the Siege of Lyme. In civil war terms I'm one of life's Roundheads, and the brave folk of Lyme sent King Charles I's army on their way.

● WHAT do you like about working in Lyme Regis?

An obvious one – the sea and the view from my window. I've discovered a fantastic team of volunteers who bring a tremendous amount to the museum.

● IS there anything you would like to change about or add to the town?

I'm reluctant to criticise Lyme in any way – it seems a bit churlish as I don't live here. Perhaps a bit more free parking for people that work here would be good. That and an extension to the museum!

● WHAT are your other personal interests?

I like to get out jogging and walking. As I'm getting on a bit and have rubbish knees it tends to be more fast walking nowadays. I write very bad novels that no one will ever publish. I love films, but absolutely loathe the 3D. I also play the guitar in a ham-fisted way and was once the bass player in the second best blues band in west Wiltshire. I like football, I've supported Everton for over 40 years since I saw them lose 4-0 on "Match of the Day" in 1971.

● WHICH three people (past or present) would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Paul Newman, because of his acting, politics and altruism; Bobby Charlton simply for being the best footballer ever to pull on an England shirt; and Spike Milligan because his war memoirs are the funniest thing I've ever read. I would have said Sir David Attenborough, but I've already had the pleasure of dinner with him!

● WHERE is your ideal holiday destination?

When I was a child, it was always Swanage. Now I'm lucky enough to live in Dorset, probably France. I have quite modest tastes and walking along the wide empty beaches of Normandy in half-decent weather is enough for me.

Worst flooding in years? No excuse for breaking down on a double yellow line

TAXI DRIVER'S FLOOD STRICKEN CAB GIVEN A TICKET... AT 5:15AM

A CABBIIE is fighting the parking ticket he received when his taxi was left stranded during the floods that caused havoc throughout Bridport.

Pat's Taxis co-owner Terry Houston was slapped with the ticket at 5:15am after he was forced to leave one of his cabs on a double yellow line on the night of the worst flooding in the area for decades.

It is the first parking ticket the 52-year-old has received in 30 years.

He said: "One of my guys broke down at around midnight on Saturday when all the flooding was everywhere.

By Chris Denne

chris.denne@pemedia.co.uk

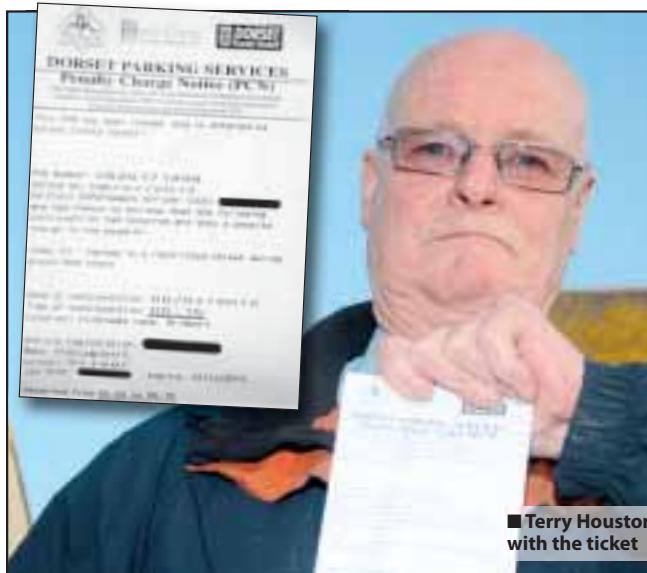

"It was pointless trying to get a truck out to move it. The floods were so bad you couldn't get anywhere, no one was going to come out.

"So we pushed the car to the side of the road just at the beginning of double yellow lines and put a big note on the window explaining what had happened.

"At eight o'clock the next morning we went to try to move it and there was this parking ticket. It was issued at 5:15am in the worst weather for decades.

"I couldn't believe it. For a traffic warden to be out issuing tickets at five o'clock in the morning on a night like that, I'm astonished.

Rock fall closes sea walk 'REAL RISK OF INJURY TO PUBLIC'

A SECTION of West Bay esplanade has been shut off from the public because of safety fears.

The western end of the esplanade is closed because of the danger of falling rocks – some believed to be more than half a metre long.

The closure was enforced when West Dorset District Council and its partners, including Dorset County Council and the Maritime and Coastguard Agency, found loosened rocks along a 70-metre section of the cliffs following this month's heavy storms.

Inspectors found overhanging rocks at the top of the cliff appeared ready to fall and slurry had overflowed onto the walkway.

The district council's technical services team are unable to say when the section will be re-opened but the situation is being assessed daily.

Nick Browning, from WDDC Technical Services team, said there was a real risk of injury happening to walkers along the section of the esplanade.

He said: "We chose to close it because of the risk to the public. There's a risk of quite large rocks coming down as a result of wet weather and there will be for several weeks."

Entombed couple died 'instantaneously'

THE couple buried in a landslide for more than a week died almost instantaneously – a coroner has ruled.

The inquest has been opened into the deaths of Rosemary Snell and Michael Rolfe who were killed when a landslide crashed into their car at the mouth of Beaminster Tunnel.

The couple lay in their car under hundreds of tonnes of bricks, mud and foliage for 10 days before they were discovered by police on July 17th.

An inquest, which was opened and adjourned on Friday, July 20th, heard that rescue efforts would not have saved the couple lives. A full inquest will be heard later in the year.

The coroner heard evidence that a pathologist found the cause of death for the 67-year-old Mrs Snell was chest compression due to trapping in landslip. The pathologist found 72-year-old former surgeon Mr Rolfe, from Fivehead, near Taunton died from a fracture of the cervical spine due to trapping in landslip.

The coroner said the death of Mrs Snell would have been "very rapid", while the death of Mr Rolfe would have been instantaneous.

It has been stated the prospect of rescue for all practical purposes would have been nil.

Mrs Snell from Misterton, near Crewkerne, had recently begun a relationship with Mr Rolfe and the pair had been for a romantic dinner in Beaminster in the hours leading up to the horrific accident.

The pair were found after a search of their bank records showed they had been in the Beaminster area.

Firefighters from Beaminster had previously checked the area of the landslide with heat seeking equipment, which had failed to pin-point the couple.

The gruesome discovery was only made when Somerset Police alerted their colleagues in Dorset and a second search was conducted.

Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) stated it was happy with the way Dorset Police handled the case.

The watchdog said the force responded quickly enough after being told the pair may be in the area and that there was no issue to investigate.

Officers are appealing for anyone who may have seen the victim's silver coloured Skoda motor car being driven on the A3066 from Beaminster village centre to Beaminster Tunnel between 9.30pm and 10.30pm on Saturday, July 7th.

This was the day when heavy rainfall battered the area causing widespread floods.

◆ Beaminster Town Council have called a public meeting for Monday, July 30th for police to address their concerns over the tunnel deaths.

dropped. Why was this officer out at five in the morning on a night like that?

"They're supposed to be employed by the council but I can't see why the council would send someone out at that time on a night like that.

"They know you can't get recovery. It makes you wonder if someone somewhere is thinking 'hello, we'll get a few tonight', as though it's some sort of privatised thing.

"They must have desperately wanted to issue that ticket. It just doesn't make any sense".

No flooding around car

A spokesman for Dorset County Council backed the decision to issue the ticket.

He said: "The flooding is not a mitigating factor in this case. Photographic evidence shows there was no flooding immediately around the car.

"If it was not possible to get around the area then the officer would not have been out on patrol.

"We have officers out 24 hours a day as you're not allowed to park on a double yellow line at any time.

"All our enforcement officers are in-house. We do not employ any private contractors to issue parking notices. We do not have any incentive schemes either."

He conceded that Mr Houston was within his rights to appeal the decision.

He said: "If they can provide proof that the vehicle had broken down then the appeal would be successful."

Uncertain future for district council offices

by Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

WDDC leader Robert Gould says the sale of its High West Street site will generate 'best return on our investment'

WEST Dorset District Council has been unable to confirm whether or not it has found a buyer for its High West Street offices and associated buildings in Dorchester.

There are now fears that at least some of the site will remain empty when staff move out towards the end of the year – with a second marketing exercise needed.

In a statement issued last week the council said: "The district council recently conducted an initial tender exercise for the disposal of the Stratton House campus.

"We received several bids in relation to the sale of the site. Officers are now considering the bids and potential next steps. In due course they will draft a report on the matter for councillors to consider."

The View has asked for an explanation of the phrase "initial tender exercise" as it had previously been understood there would only be one – and for confirmation of whether the bids are for the whole of the site, or, as we have been told, for just parts of it.

We have also asked how many bids were received and for a timetable for the next phase in the disposal of the building.

Sources claim that the only viable bids are for small properties in Glyde Path Road and Colliton Street and the accompanying car park.

Opponents of the district council's around 4,600 square metres of office space over a 1.6 acre site, together with around 85 car parking spaces.

The site, or campus' as the district council has chosen to call it, also includes the former county path' laboratory, Glyde Path House; the cottages at 36-41 Colliton Street, which are used as offices; 17 and 17a Colliton Street and Old School House.

Also for sale is the Bennets Court car park in Colliton Street.

"The campus would suit a variety of uses which may include offices, leisure, retail and residential, to be achieved through sympathetic conversion and redevelopment of the existing buildings," said the sales brochure.

The sale was by informal tender with offers invited for all the properties or for individual lots.

Robert Gould, leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "The sale of these properties is part of our agreed strategy to relocate to smaller offices in Charles Street later this year, so generating best return on our investment, and best value for the town.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for a sensitive development to bring a new lease of life to this area of Dorchester."

At the time of going to press the district council was unable to comment.

Two arrested in drugs raid

POLICE smashed a suspected cannabis growing operation when they swooped on a Bridport address.

Two arrests were made and a large amount of herbal cannabis was discovered growing in the loft of the North Street property following the raid.

Bridport police officers were acting on a tip-off from members of the public when they struck at 8.30am on July 19th.

A 20-year-old man and a 21-year-old woman living at the same address were arrested on suspicion of cultivating cannabis. They have been released on police bail while enquiries continue.

Sergeant James Rowe co-ordinated the operation to search and deal with any evidence of criminal behaviour at the property.

The latest drugs raid is the fourth – and the third this month – to have been carried out in the Bridport and West Bay this year. A total of five people have been arrested in the raids.

PC Scott McGregor said the raid was part of the force's commitment to stamping out drug use in the town.

He said: "This is part of the ongoing initiative taken by officers to tackle and disrupt the supply of controlled drugs in Bridport.

"This warrant was executed as a result of information provided to us from the public.

"It demonstrates the value of information gained from the community allowing us to take pro-active action in stamping out the scourge of such drugs and associated criminality within our town.

"We will continue to act on information provided to us from the public. I would ask anyone with any information to come forward and help us make your area safer.

Call for inclusive gardening club to continue

by Paul Crompton

paul@pemedia.co.uk

A GARDENING club is calling for new volunteers to help continue its legacy.

The club is looking for volunteer co-ordinators to continue working with groups and individuals – which have previously included physically and mentally handicapped children.

The call comes as club members voice concerns about its future since the announcement that co-ordinator Carolyn Brightwater is leaving after leading the club for two years.

Fellow co-ordinator Lucy Baggs is also set to leave.

The allotments behind St Mary's Church were created three years ago and are leased by Bridport Community Orchard Group (BCOG) from Bridport Town Council.

A statement from BCOG said it was committed to the gardening club but discussions on how the allotments are run in the future were ongoing.

Ms Brightwater said she hoped the club would not fold.

The horticultural therapist said: "Potentially this is a great opportunity lost and that would be a real shame. I hope it continues and I hope they find a volunteer but it's been quite a few months and nobody has come forward."

Former teacher Ms Baggs said: "I just feel really sad. I feel that all the really good aspects of it, the inclusivity and support it offers will be lost.

"I returned to the area about a year ago and this club has been a really good support network helping me meet people. I just feel really sad it's not going to carry on like it was."

Club member Liz Silk said her daughter Rosie, who suffers with Down's Syndrome, had found the club hugely beneficial.

She said: "Rosie's confidence has grown so much. She comes in and works well with everybody. She was never confident to go out on her own but now I can drop her off and know she's well looked after because she's happy to walk to the allotments by herself."

BCOG are looking to extend the use of the community allotments to more people and are inviting expressions of interest from local groups who might wish to have the use of one or more of the beds.

BCOG chairman Jill Lloyd thanked Ms Bright-water for her hard work and said the plan was to continue moving the club forward.

She said: "We will continue to be there for the gardening club who will continue to decide how the land is used until the end of the season, then if they want to carry on meeting there next year they can.

"We will continue to support them and they can have some of the allotment beds, but not all of them.

"There's going to be a change at the gardening club and this is an opportunity, not a disaster. It's a change for the existing club but a very good opportunity for others to become involved."

To get involved with the allotments call Mrs Lloyd on 10308 458480 or email jill.lloyd@talktalk.net

Model railway exhibition

THE BRIDPORT and District Model Railway Club will be holding their annual summer exhibition this Saturday.

It will be the 25th anniversary exhibition for the club, which hopes to include layouts from past years displaying various gauges and different themes.

There will be demonstrations, trade stands and refreshments available throughout the day.

This being the Diamond Jubilee of the Queen there will be a small display about the Royal Train.

Everyone is welcome and there are discounted prices for family groups at the event in the United Church Hall in East Street, Bridport from 10am until 5pm.

Correction

WE WOULD like to point out that the incident referred to in last week's story 'Pensioner on the mend after hit white van hit and run' was, in fact, not a hit and run.

The driver involved did everything expected of him in such a situation.

We would like to apologise for any distress this report may have caused.

A LARGE entry field made Bridport's first fun run in a decade a huge success.

Runners of all ages lined up in what organisers hope was the first of many races as they resurrect the Great Bridport fun run in the town.

The five-kilometre run was completed by 146 people - including one man in his 80s and a boy aged five.

The run, based at Brewery Field, was held in conjunction with Bridport Leisure centre's week of Olympic themed events and open days.

The Brit Valley Rotary Club helped organise the run along with extreme sports company Bustinskin and Bridport Runners Club.

Brian Shelley, the Bridport Runners secretary, said: "A lot of places around here have runs and so it would be nice if Bridport had its own. We are trying to re-establish the Great Bridport Fun Run again.

joyed dance, stalls and a church service overseen by the Bishop of Ebbsfleet over the most important weekend in the church's calendar.

Stalls, a tombola and refreshments all contributed to the efforts which raised much-needed funds for the North Allington church.

Meanwhile, young people from the Lyric School of Dance entertained church members with a series of dances showcasing the talents of girls in three age groups.

Teresa Grinter, who runs the dancing school, oversaw the dancing.

She said: "We are always happy to support days like this. The Charter Fair was rained off so it's good for the girls to have the chance to perform. They enjoy showing what they can do."

Church warden Graham Williams was hoping the event would bring in as much money as possible for the church.

He said: "St Swithun's day is one of the key dates in the calendar for us."

Church member Verena Doyle organised the fundraising efforts.

She said: "We aim to raise as much as we can. We have large bills and need days like this to keep the church going."

Get busy on your entry for the Melplash Show

THE HANDICRAFTS, horticulture and home produce competition classes have long been one of the highlights of the Melplash Show and this year will be no exception. They are the perfect opportunity for people of all ages and talents to showcase their creativity and hobbies. This year, as always, the society section chairpersons and their team of helpers have put together an action packed line-up to appeal to both participants and attendees. Whether you grow vegetables, flowers, paint, draw, sew or bake there is a category for you; and classes for children as well as adults.

The children's categories are brimming with exciting activities and classes for them to enter; ideal for keeping them occupied whilst they are on their school summer holidays, as well as giving them a chance to be recognised for their hard work and ingenuity too. Classes include such things as: picture of a dinosaur, miniature garden, four decorated cupcakes, a necklace made from garden materials, a vehicle made from vegetables, a scarecrow. Entries to the children's competitions are free.

In the adult sections there are plenty of different competitions on offer including baking, handicrafts, photography, flower arranging, etc. If you are green fingered there are prizes for the best pot plant, fruit and vegetables.

There are cookery competition classes too, including the men only competition for best cheese straws. Not to mention the special cookery competitions run by The Riverside Restaurant, West Bay, this year amateur cooks are asked to produce a fish terrine - first prize being an £80 voucher to dine at the Riverside; and the curry competition run and sponsored by the Taj Mahal, Bridport and SeaSpring Seeds, West Bexington - first prize a voucher for £40 to dine at the Taj Mahal.

There is still time to enter your exhibits in the Melplash show. Schedules are available on the web www.melplashshow.co.uk or from the Show Office. The closing dates for all handicrafts, horticultural and home produce is Wednesday 15th August.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Is there a positive rainbow after all of this rain?

DORSET COMPANY SHOWS THE UPSIDE TO THE REGION'S INCREASED RAINFALL

FOLLOWING the success of their recent "Meet the Experts" session, The Core renewable energy centre in Bridport, Dorset, has made use of their fully interactive centre to highlight the wide variety of sustainable technologies available, including how to turn the recent heavy rainfall into a quantifiable asset.

Rainwater harvesting is principally a simple concept - the rain running off your roof and down the drainpipes is diverted, filtered and stored in tanks. A pump then supplies the water to washing machines, toilets and garden. These pipes are kept separate from drinking water which obviously needs to be much cleaner.

There are signs of growing interest in the UK with some large buildings in Britain being designed to capture rainwater. The new Olympic Velodrome in London uses rainwater for flushing toilets and for irrigating the surrounding landscape.

Ashley Chant, Managing Director of The Core, said: "In the UK we are ineffective at putting all this rainwater to good use... Why are we not collecting this valuable commodity? After the disastrous floods over the past few weeks, we have to look at utilizing this excess rainwater."

Showing that he buys into the concept, Mr Chant continued: "At The Core, we utilize rainwater from the drain-pipes, collecting it in an underground tank and then pumping it onto the system for toilet flushing, ensuring that our water bills are kept low. At The Core we have two systems on display, an underground litre tank and a retrofit slim kit that you can purchase and fit for yourself to an outside wall."

To find out more about rainwater harvesting, The Core are inviting local residents and visitors to "Meet the Experts" on Saturday 28th July. This will be an informative demonstration of rainwater harvesting, giving you the opportunity to ask any questions and see the system in operation. Meet our experts along with Andrew Lennard from Halsted Rain and we will show you how you can make significant savings on your water bills.

The Core is at Unit 3, Homewood Way, Gore Cross Business Park, (Opening Hours: Monday to Friday 9am until 5pm and Saturdays 9.00 am until 1pm). The Core is giving an exclusive 10% discount on any orders made during the open morning.

Worthy winners at Sir John Colfox prize giving

By Stuart Broom

HINOMARU House lifted the House Trophy, sponsored by C G Fry and Son, at the prize giving at Sir John Colfox School last week.

Along with the House Cup Hinomaru also won the Rugby Cup, sponsored by Samways, the Cross Country Cup, sponsored by Humberts, the Tennis Cup, sponsored by Mr Fisher, and the Languages Challenge Cup.

Millie Langdon of H9 MR also took the Mayor's Award for Rights Respecting School/Community Work. Millie has been a Rights Respecting Ambassador in the school and is part of the team that is working closely with the Town Council to set up a Youth Council.

Other sponsors joined the school for the celebration including Emma O'Grady of Oak Apple Embroidery who sponsored the Girls Football, Peter Wyrill of Rawmedia, the Cricket Cup, and Chris Newall of Specsavers, the Science Cup.

Some key individual prizes were also awarded. Harriet Hughes took the School Leadership Award sponsored by Kitson and Trotman. Harriet has been an outstanding role model in the school, organising and supporting many sporting and house events and has shown impressive leadership qualities throughout her Year 10.

Katy Bird of Toro House won the Roger Draper Award as the Top Buddy which is awarded to the student in the school who is most effectively supporting younger students and helping them settle into the school.

Lucy Taylor in Year 9 won the Lions Community Award for her work with Save the Children. Lucy is on the local Save the Children Committee and has helped out at many events, including organising stalls at local fêtes and supporting the school in its fund raising for Save the Children.

The overall House point winner was Hattie Cleden with an amazing 220 points.

"The house system at the Sir John Colfox School represents the best of what our students do. It is about participation, team work, excellence and having a go. Not all students can be winners but it is clear that those who take part and those that do more, even if they don't come first, are winners in their own way", said Headteacher Kay Taylor.

She added: "I was so proud of all the students who have taken part in all these events. The range is incredible; it allows all students to take part in something that they enjoy and are good at, and it allows them all to work for the benefit of their house or their school. All the winners deserve praise, all of those who took part have done their bit and they should all be congratulated for their achievements."

Put in some time to meet a buddy

VOLUNTEERS are needed to meet the demand for a buddy-up scheme in Bridport.

The scheme which matches people with the elderly and vulnerable is proving such a success that more volunteers are needed to sign up.

The Bridport Buddies scheme provides the area's most needy residents with home support, helping them to remain independent and stay in their own homes.

The initiative launched in May has already matched three friends together.

The scheme is co-ordinated by Jo Burlington and Sara Saintjames.

Mrs Burlington, who has been co-ordinating the project since March, said the scheme had started well.

"We've got three people really well matched up who visit people regularly and it's got some good feedback from the volunteers.

"But now we are getting more referrals we need more volunteers to give just an hour a week. It really transforms someone's quality of life.

"Some people are quite isolated and the people they see are for practical and functional reasons but they want to do things they enjoy. Volunteers have said their buddies become interested in things they used to be interested in.

"We've already seen one woman blossoming because when you don't talk to people regularly you forget what you are interested in."

She added: "Whatever time people can afford to give will brighten someone's day. It really makes all the difference."

by Paul Crompton
paul@pemedia.co.uk

The Partnerships for Older People Projects (POPP), NHS Dorset and WRVS are working together on the service.

Volunteer Ron Lee said he had got as much from the scheme as he had given.

The retired chemical analyst said: "What I'm doing at the moment is seeing a bloke in a care-home which gives his wife a chance to get out and gives him a bloke to talk to.

"I go once a week and have a chat and it's very good. People thinking about volunteering should be prepared to give it a month and see if it's for them – but to say no it's not for you without trying is missing a real opportunity to meet a new friend."

Lisa Knight, from NHS Dorset, said volunteers should have good communication skills.

She said: "The scheme is important on a number of levels but first and foremost the local community identified that there is need for community support for vulnerable adults and older adults."

For more information or to volunteer as a co-ordinator or befriender, call Lisa Knight on 01305 368053, Karen Jones, Outreach Worker, Volunteer Centre Dorset on 07918 639012 or Sue Herman, POPP Community Leader, on 07760 762278.

Transport meeting

THE NEXT meeting of the West Dorset Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) will be held on Thursday, July 26th at the WI Hall, Bridport.

The bi-monthly meeting is open to all members of the public interested in public transport matters with town and parish councillors especially welcomed. The meeting starts at 6.30 pm and is due to end by 8.30pm.

This meeting will be in the lull before the effects of the Olympic Games on public transport become apparent. Representatives from Dorset County Council (Passenger Transport Department) and the main bus operators have been invited to attend in order to give updates on the situation.

There will be a review of items raised at previous meetings and, as always, there will be a "democratic moment" when any individual may raise questions about local bus and rail services to which they would like answers.

WATAG covers the whole Western end of West Dorset and have links to similar groups around the County.

For further details contact WATAG Secretary Joy Michaud on 01308 897892.

Sculpture on the beach

CASH prizes are up for grabs in this year's Sculpture on the Beach event in Eype.

Artists are being urged to get creative with the flotsam and jetsam they find on Eype Beach this Sunday for Bridport Arts Centre's annual event.

Organisers are promising a great day out for all of the family, with participants encouraged to let their imaginations run wild and make sculptures from treasures found on the beach.

Past participants have used everything from stones and seaweed to driftwood.

The popular competition attracts a wide variety of competitors from children and families to professional sculptors.

Cash prizes are being offered for the three winning sculptures.

Dee Fenton, who is helping to organise the event, said: "Sculpture on the beach is a real highlight of Bridport Arts Centre's calendar, it's great to see people using

THE SEAFOOD PLATTER

Fore Street, Beer, Nr Seaton EX12 3EQ Tel 01297 20099

A sea change for Beer Restaurant

THE Barrel O' Beer is well on the way to an exciting re-launch as it gets ready to change it's name this week.

The new name- 'The Seafood Platter' aims not only picks out the award winning gastro pub's signature dish but also reinstates the premises as a top seafood and local cuisine venue.

After entering the well-known Taste of the West awards last year, the traditional pub came away with a silver award highlighting their interest in the best local produce available. Now they hope that they can do even better in the years to come, singling themselves out as a true location for 'foodies' everywhere.

Customers are able to see where their food comes from, with an extensive menu and supplier list on show, highlighting a list of suppliers from Seaton and the Lyme Bay to Luscombe Organic Produce and Christopher Piper wines based near Ottery St Mary.

The family run business has recently been redecorated and has developed internally into a fresh yet traditional look and now the Hunt family hope that their new name will give them that extra boost for years to come.

Supporting sustainability for both the environment and the local food market, a major philosophy of the restaurant is supporting the 'sustainable fish fight,' serving only fresh fish from the Lyme Bay area, as well as only using free range, traditionally reared meats from local suppliers.

The kitchen team also show a major commitment to making food freshly on the premises, with homemade deserts and daily baked bread, whilst all other food is sourced from as close to Beer as possible.

The Hunt Family have been running the pub for 22 years, first arriving at the premises in 1990. They hope that they can continue to provide a real family feel and traditional service to their customers whilst really excelling in the high quality food market.

Manager, Luke Hunt said: "We are all very excited about the name change, which we hope will really put us on the map as a real gastro pub, rather than your average local pub.

"We aim to provide a friendly and professional service, with only the highest standards of food, usually all locally sourced produce and freshly made dishes created by our award winning chefs.

"We are looking forward to what the future will bring and cannot wait to continue improving and embracing our high food standards as well as our new name- 'The Seafood Platter.'

Pleased to support the Seafood Platter

Where quality food is served at its best for your enjoyment

In the picturesque fishing village of Beer, half way down Fore Street you will find The Seafood Platter, a family run pub/restaurant, specialising in seafood. We only use the best local free range traditionally reared meat, all our fish is off day boats that fish out of South West waters.

A warm welcome awaits you by the Hunt family, with a good selection of real ales or a bottle from our carefully chosen wine list, to accompany your meal, that wouldn't be out of place in any top London restaurant.

Whether on holiday, a weekend break, living locally or just out for a drive, we believe that people deserve that bit more than just a pub. We pride ourselves on our traditional values of hospitality and customer care. Making the most of the beautiful countryside we're set in, we use local seafood, Devon meat and local game (when available).

We have an ever changing menu, with a taste of the Mediterranean and a hint of world cooking. We only use the best ingredients available and try to look after our customers in a way which represents how we ourselves would like to be treated, with an emphasis on detail, which will make your visit to The Seafood Platter memorable for all the right reasons.

Rain holds off as fete raises over £1,000

■ DOGGY TRICKS: Bridport Dog Training Society entertained the crowd with their skills

DESPITE gathering clouds, the summer fete at Holy Trinity Church, Bothenhampton was once again highly successful.

Prudence being the word, several of the stalls were accommodated inside the church, but the rain held off and the annual event raised over £1,000 towards church funds.

Besides the usual sideshows, music was provided by the Durnovaria Silver Band from Dorchester and the Bothenhampton Handbell Ringers whilst the Bridport Dog Training Society once again delighted their audience with the newly honed skills of both dog and owner.

Inside the church visitors could gorge on scones and clotted cream or cakes washed down with a cup of hot tea.

■ STRIKE UP THE BAND: The Durnovaria Silver Band again gave a polished display of music

■ WELL CHIMED: The Bothenhampton Handbell Ringers entertained the visitors inside the church

The group was initially founded by Dr Debbie Flett who is based in Dorchester. All members of the Dorset hypnotherapy hub are dedicated to delivering a top quality experience to all their clients whether they are visiting for a one off session or on a regular basis. The Dorset Hypnotherapy hub is a self-regulated group that has been formed to ensure that all the clients received the highest quality service. The group adhere to all the standard hypnotherapy regulations and have also added additional conditions such as ensuring that their clients are paying a fair price. The group meet regularly to discuss any issues that may have arisen and new ideas for the future.

The main role of the self-regulatory body is to protect the public. The group have come together following a number of comments made by clients that have come forward with bad experience in the past with other hypnotherapists. They felt they must do something to ensure this does not occur within their group. They intend providing the highest quality service and will ensure that any future members of the Group adhere to this high standard. The Dorset Hypnotherapy Hub ethos is to provide the highest standard of hypnotherapy to their clients.

All members of the Dorset hypnotherapy hub are fully qualified, insured and experienced.

MP visits centre offering training and support for new businesses

TORY MP Oliver Letwin has been given a guided tour of a farm which is fast becoming a hub for education, training and enterprise.

The West Dorset MP had a meeting with Symene CLT and Hasto Housing Association before touring Miles Cross Farm Education and Enterprise Centre during his visit to Symondsbury.

The leading government minister had asked to visit the centre to witness first hand the work which is being done with schools and business start ups.

The centre offers education and training courses, and a range of business enterprise and development services including, start up support, on-site business incubation accommodation and training for new entrants and established small businesses.

It also provides a range of courses and activities in crafts, manufacturing, and leisure.

The centre has recently welcomed six start up businesses on site, and a further six locally based associated new business developments.

Ruth Wrixton, Joint Business Partner and owner of Miles Cross Farm said it had grown in leaps and bounds over the last year.

The centre boasts a range of collaborative partners including Kingston Maurward College, Symondsbury School, Colfox School and Yeovil Col-

■ BUSINESSMAN Brian Sanders, Ruth Wrixton, owner of Miles Cross Farm, Tim Hunt from Yeovil College, MP Oliver Letwin, Bridport Town Councillor Kayes and Gareth Hughes at Miles Cross Farm

Director of employer engagement at Yeovil College, Tim Hunt, said the opportunities afforded by the centre's facilities had proved highly effective.

He said: "We have seen a significant increase in the number of new business start up entrants establishing new businesses and developing them successfully. We have also experienced the growth of business to business networking.

"We have seen the successful progression of local people onto apprenticeships, and we have seen the progression for learners from job centre through specialist work related training to full time employment.

"Our learners very much enjoy the opportunity to work on projects that do actually provide buildings, structures, land areas, crops, and crafts that are then fully utilised and sustainable, rather than being knocked down and tidied in readiness for the next group of learners."

Bridport Town Councillor Ros Kayes put together the Skills for Self Reliance bid, which is administrated by Kingston Maurward College in conjunction with Yeovil College.

She said: The innovative equipment and teaching space offers a real opportunity for us to develop innovative training in renewable energy, solar and wind power and wood fuel systems and to bring the fieldwork to Miles Cross Farm Education and Enterprise Centre."

There's something in the air - Weymouth & Portland prepares for its largest celebration yet...

Hundreds of impressive costumes have been designed and made, countless daring circus stunts and dance have been rehearsed, a thousand voices from across the South West are warmed up, local and international artists have researched and created. Feel the excitement brewing as we prepare for the Dorset's largest creative spectacular from the 26th July onwards in Weymouth & Portland. Maritime Mix - London 2012 Cultural Olympiad by the Sea has most definitely arrived and will showcase some of its most amazing events over the next few days; an extraordinary spectacle that cannot be missed...

Weymouth and Portland will come alive with town's creative celebrations to mark the start of London 2012 Games in Weymouth & Portland. Locals and visitors will enjoy the unmitigated magic of live performances, taking over the host venue of the London 2012 Olympic & Paralympic sailing.

Make sure you visit Alex Hartley's Nowhereisland at Bowleaze Cove. This new island nation will be anchored in the Cove until 2nd August and accompanied by a mobile embassy packed full of objects, activities and information that tells the story of Nowhereisland's origins. The embassy will be located on Furzy Cliff.

On 26th July Battle for the Winds, the much anticipated three day outdoor theatre event commences with 'The Gathering of the Winds'. Seven Wind Gathering Machines from the seven counties of the South West will arrive with their unique machines, performers and stories of their travels collecting winds for the Olympic sailors. Six of these machines will be located in Weymouth, (12pm - 4pm) and one in Easton, Portland (11-1pm, travelling back to Weymouth at 2.30pm).

A mischievous stone-being has been spotted around the Dorset coast of late and is plotting to steal winds ahead of the sailing events! As part of the Battle for the Winds story, this dastardly character Doldrum will be on the run on 27th July as 'The Search for Doldrum's Lair', day two of the Battle for the Winds will be performed. This is a free, ticketed event with interactive dance and multimedia installations amongst the stunning scenery of Portland's High Angle Battery. For tickets visit www.brownpapertickets.com/event/246503

The final day of the 'Battle for the Winds' is Saturday 28th July when the Wind Gatherers will process along Weymouth Esplanade from 12pm - 4pm. The culmination of this epic tale takes place in the Live Site area with 'The Final Battle' (8.45pm - 10pm, gates open at 8.15pm); a spectacular battle featuring hundreds of artists plays out on land and in the air to determine the perfect wind to launch the sailing, and an unlikely champion comes forward as Battle for the Winds joins up with Breathe, a company of disabled and non-disabled artists. This event will include circus, dance, street theatre, video projections, aerial, acrobatics and more. The grand finale sees a unique display from 220 of Bridgwater Carnival Squibbers. This is followed by a fire torch wade on Weymouth Beach with 2,012 community members carrying flaming torches into the sea to celebrate the release of the winds to the Olympic sailors.

There will also be a full programme of entertainment to herald the live coverage of the London 2012 opening ceremony in the Live Site area on 27th July from 2pm. 1,000 voices will perform Coastal Voices, a landmark project bringing members community choirs together to perform four new commissions under the musical director Howard Moody. New work by Sonia Slany, John Surman, John K. Miles and Marc Yeats, all written as a response to the Jurassic Coast, will be performed. As well as this renowned folk artist Eliza Carthy and vocal ensemble I Faglioni will perform Welcome Songs, a suite of celebratory songs inspired by four areas linked to the Games accompanied by South West Music School. This feast of audio delights is free for everyone to enjoy, but there will be a capacity limit of 15,000 so make sure you get there early!

Have you ever seen a film in a 360 degree screen? Well now you can. ICC360 Arena will open its unique arena from 26th July right through to September film screenings and live performances from the likes of Triops and the popular Bristol based Kid Carpet. Come along to see Marc Yeats conducting his new commission, an audio landslide Sturzstrom, part of Coastal Voices, in this venue at 6pm on 27th July.

The next week will certainly be a momentous occasion for all involved. Come and help us celebrate this once in a lifetime experience.

For daily updates of the fun and excitement over these next few days don't forget to come and say Hi! on our Facebook and Twitter pages.

A GOLDEN WEDDING, A BIRTHDAY AND A DEDICATION

OVER the past few weeks, Lyme Regis Town Band's summer engagements have shown unusual variety. They recently entertained an appreciative audience of guests at a private golden wedding celebration in Hawkhurst. This was followed by the celebration of a 'significant' birthday of one of its members and then the dedication and naming ceremony of the new Lyme Regis lifeboat.

Last week, a special cake was provided by Val Mahoney for band member Viv Wright, with an icing picture showing Viv in band uniform. When asked the significance of the birthday, Viv would only repeat 'significant', so the truth remains a well-kept secret!

Prior to the dedication and naming ceremony of the new lifeboat 'Pride of Loch Fyne', the band entertained a large crowd of holidaymakers on Marine Parade. They then accompanied hymns for the RNLI's 'Songs of Praise', finally moving to the lifeboat slipway for the special service of dedication, led by the Vicar of Lyme Regis.

Musical Director, John Powell commented, 'we have had a busy period, but are always delighted to be asked take part in all kinds of celebrations. As the local band, it is particularly good that we can support the RNLI, which does such important and vital work.'

The band's Marine Parade concerts 'Music by the Sea' continue throughout July and August each Tuesday at 8 o'clock, with additional performances on several

Members of Illyria's Henry V cast

Illyria present Henry V by William Shakespeare come rain or shine!

RENNED open-air theatre company Illyria will bring Henry V to Bridport on Tuesday, July 31st, 7pm. They have promised not to let the rain dampen their spirits! If the evening is fine the performance will take place on the Millennium Green, in the event of heavy rain the event will be taken into Bridport Arts Centre.

General Manager, Dee Fenton said: 'Illyria's performances are always a joy, polished and full of imagination. We look forward to the group returning to Bridport - whatever the weather!'

Illyria has an unparalleled reputation for the clarity and authenticity of its Shakespearean style. Performing each play with only a handful of props and no scenery - as almost all of Shakepeare's plays were conceived.

Henry V is Shakespeare's most popular historical drama. Full of patriotism, pageantry and poetry, it tells the gripping story of an inexperienced king who leads a small and weakened army into the battle of Agincourt against the might of the French battalions. With towering odds stacked against them the English win a sweeping victory. But after such an extraordinary military conquest, how will Henry fare with the greatest challenge of all - the conquest of Princess Catherine's heart?

Tickets are available from Bridport Arts Centre's Box office priced £12/ £10 members/ £8 concessions/ £35 family, call 01308 424204 for more details.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

*And light is thy fame;
I hear thy name spoken,
And share in its shame.*

*They name thee before me,
A knell to mine ear;
A shudder comes o'er me--
Why wert thou so dear?
They know not I knew thee,
Who knew thee so well--
Long, long I shal rue thee,
Too deeply to tell.*

*In secret we met--
In silence I grieve,
That thy heart could forget,
Thy spirit deceive
If I should meet thee
After long years,
How should I greet thee?--
With silence and tears.*

SO WE'LL GO NO MORE A-ROVING

*So we'll go no more a-roving
So late into the night,
Though the heart still be as loving,
And the moon still be as bright.*

For the sword outwears its sheath, And the soul outwears the breast, And the heart must pause to breathe, And love itself have rest.

Though the night was made for loving,

*And the day returns too soon,
Yet we'll go no more a-roving
By the light of the moon.*

SHE WALKS IN BEAUTY, LIKE THE NIGHT

*She walks in Beauty, like the night
Of cloudless skies and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes:
Thus mellowed to that tender light
Which Heaven to gaudy day denies.*

*One shade the more, one ray the less,
Had half impaired the nameless grace
Which waves in every raven tress,
Or softly lightens o'er her face;
Where thoughts serenely sweet express,
How pure, how dear their dwelling-place.*

*And on that cheek, and o'er that brow,
So soft, so calm, yet eloquent,
The smiles that win, the tints that glow,
But tell of days in goodness spent,
A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent!*

WHEN WE TWO PARTED
*When we two parted
In silence and tears,
Half broken-hearted
To sever for years,
Pale grew thy cheek and cold,
Colder thy kiss;
Truly that hour foretold
Sorrow to this.*

THE DEW OF THE MORNING
*The dew of the morning
Sunk chill on my brow--
It felt like the warning
Of what I feel now.
Thy vows are all broken,*

Maggie Reedy at 115 Club

115 Club, Bridport's dedicated music & dinner venue last week enjoyed a fabulous performance of blues & jazz by the spectacular Edana Minghella, Mick Smith & Pete Maxfield. Edana's voice was stunning, her presence enchanting, and the professional support of Mick Smith on Keyboard & Pete Maxfield on Double Bass made for an enthralling evening.

On Thursday, August 2nd, 115 Club have a wonderful duo of Maggie Reedy and Philip Clouts set to perform their combo of Jazz inspired by African & Latin influences. Beautiful jazz standards combined with Philip's natural talent on the keyboard and Maggie's gentle vocals are set to make a fabulous evening to enjoy.

Maggie is regarded as one of the country's finest vocalists, appearing on both TV & radio, with her "smokey" voice, lending itself perfectly to the blues & more soulful jazz, should guarantee a fun evening of engaging music. Paired up with Philip Clouts an accomplished band leader & founding member of Zubop, that raised the roof at Ronnie Scott's. Clouts swings with rhythmic deliberation and a crystal sense of phrasing, setting a beautiful ivory accompaniment, using his roots to infuse the jazz standards with African & Latin moods.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7:00pm and 8:00pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2:00 and 6:00pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

Hits from the Blitz

THE Bridport Arts Centre will be swinging along to the "Hits from the Blitz" show on Sunday, August 5th. The unique "feel-good" 1940's show, as featured at Dame Vera Lynn's Charity Gala Nights, boasts famous War-Time tunes and "sing-a-longs" brought to life by the singers and multi-instrumentalists of the "Five Star Swing" band, ("Superb, they swing like crazy!" - Sheila Tracy, BBC).

Featuring Simone from the latter days of the Ivy Benson Orchestra plus Chris Smith (Jnr) composer and arranger for Glenn Miller's Brother, Herb and the BBC Radio Big Band. Chris Says, "I've been brought up with this style of music as my father (Chris Smith Snr) played trombone for Frank Sinatra on his European tours. It's a great atmosphere during the show as there's a strong resurgence in Jazz and Swing music enjoyed by all generations these days". Trombonist Mike Innes will also be featured, Mike performed with Tony Bennett in the '90s. The show starts at 7.30pm. To book tickets call the box office on 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com

North Indian Classical Music at next Sunday's afternoon concert in the Parish Church

THE wide variety of music on offer at the summer Sunday afternoons concerts at Lyme Regis Parish Church has never before included

Indian Classical Music. Next Sunday, July 29th at 3.30pm, there will be a chance to hear this mesmerising music with its fascinating sounds and rhythms. Ricky Romain (sitar) and John Sterckx (tabla) are highly trained and experienced exponents, who have earned high praise nationally for their performances. Their deep understanding and mutual enjoyment of each other's playing is always apparent. The music will range from extremely slow meditative melodies to fast intricate interplay between the instruments. This will definitely be an event not to be missed.

▲ JOHN STERCKX (left) and RICKY ROMAIN (right) will bring their mesmerising Indian music to Lyme Regis Parish Church on Sunday, July 29th

Top Welsh talent at Comedy Café

THE cream of Welsh stand up talent will be taking over the Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café this week as they join regular favourites for another fun filled evening.

Wales is responsible for some of the finest comedy talent produced over the last few years and this month's headliner at the BAC Comedy Café has been dubbed as the man "leading the next generation".

Dan Thomas has been making audiences laugh non stop since his success in the Welsh Unsigned Stand Up Awards 2010. Since then he has appeared on ITV, BBC and was hand picked by Russell Kane to support him on his last two national tours.

Joining Dan in his journey over from the valleys will be the delightfully self deprecating Jordan Brookes and the charmingly funny Robin Morgan. Two of the most unique and promising new acts gigging in Wales today.

Opening the show will be a former comedy cafe favourite Luke Honnoraty, who was one of the highlights at the club's opening night.

Devon based Luke recently won the infamous King Gong competition at London's prestigious Comedy Store with his cheeky persona that has audiences laughing at the edgiest of subjects.

Completing the line up will be new act Darren Coles and regular compere Tom Glover.

Bridport comedian Tom Glover will be giving his take on events, both local and national, and testing out some of his latest material.

The July Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café will be at 8pm this Friday, July 27th.

Tickets are available from the box office on 01308 424204, £5 adults / £3 concessions.

Your fantastic guide of what to do and see in the Summer Holidays

We've got the lot ...

WITH the longest day just passed, summer is well and truly upon us and it won't be long before the area is flooded with tourists.

With the tough economy at present, many people are sacrificing their holidays abroad this year and choosing British resorts instead.

Tourism is the lifeblood of this particular area and already our resorts are seeing an increasing number of visitors, especially at weekends.

If you take a look at the beauty of our seaside towns and surrounding country areas, who wants to spend several hours queuing in Terminal 5 at Heathrow airport, especially as there's every likelihood you will be separated from your luggage for ever more.

A leisurely drive down the A303 or the M5, even at peak times, is much more sensible.

The triangle that makes up East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset has some of the most spectacular scenery in the British Isles with a welcome second to none.

As part of the Jurassic Coast, a World Heritage Site, we sit on equal terms with the Taj Mahal and Grand Canyon.

And we do so with every right for when it comes to heritage we are right up there with the top tourist spots in the world.

This supplement, Summer 2012, is designed to show off our area to its best ...a concise record of all the best things about spending the lazy, hazy days of summer in picturesque East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset.

This is a Jurassic Triangle - and if you get lost there will always be a friendly soul to put you back on the right track again.

Summer 2012 contains dozens of ideas of how to spend your time in our company wisely, where to eat and places to visit.

There really is something for everyone - no matter what age.

From genteel cream teas in village settings, to bracing clifftop walks, or traditional family pursuits on sunkissed beaches, Summer 2012 will point you in the right direction.

commented: "We are delighted to be working with Seaton Tramway to encourage people to enjoy historic and vintage transport."

"People love to imagine what it was like for those living at a time when the world moved at a gentler pace. Now visitors can see the Victorian For more information, please contact: Shelley Fletcher, Firegrass Communications, PR on behalf of Seaton Tramway on 01209 311072 or 07850 937419 or email shelley@firegrasscommunications.co.uk

Escot Gardens, Maze & Forest Adventure

Escot launches summer event season with spectacular evening horseback falconry and jousting display

THE sun shone just for one evening last week and Escot's new Falconry arena basked in the warmth of the applause from the audience as the launch event of the summer season got underway with an official opening by singer, Elkie Brooks.

Jonathan Marshall, Escot's resident falconer put on spectacular display of horseback falconry and medieval jousting. Flying his majestic Golden Eagle, 'Samson' with his 7 foot wingspan as well as the fastest of all birds of prey, the Peregrine Falcon. The invited guests were delighted as the birds swooped in low over their heads and enjoyed Jonathan's entertaining commentary and tales of falconry. The silent approach of the beautiful barn owl surprised the audience and was the definite winner of the "ahhhh" factor.

Jonathan Marshall is considered one of the country's most innovative and exciting falconers using Spanish Lusitano horses during the performance, the horses did not flinch as the birds flew between their legs and both horse and rider amazed the crowd with precision dressage moves.

The highlight for the children, and many of the grown-ups too, was the medieval jousting event. Told as story between good and evil, the black knight and the nobleman, the crowd booed, hissed and cheered as the tale unfolded to its dramatic climax.

"We are delighted that the opening event of the summer season at Escot went so well and we hope that many visitors will come and enjoy the special evening horseback falconry and jousting shows taking place throughout the summer." Said Robin Savill, General Manager, Escot.

The evening's entertainment was further heightened by David Marshall one of the UK's top operatic tenors who performed opera favourites as well as a grand finale from Phantom of the Opera.

Escot has daily falconry shows available to all park visitors at no extra charge and special evening horseback falconry and jousting shows every Thursday from 7pm – 9pm, throughout July and August. Adults £6.00. Children £5.00. Refreshments available to purchase.

Win a Family Day out at Escot

For all lovers of Nature, Escot is a totally new gardens experience. It is uniquely attractive to garden enthusiasts and families alike. Here are champion trees and elegant shrubs amidst woodland paths, picnic spots and forest playgrounds. As the historian Polwhele said back in the eighteenth century:

"Perhaps there are no plantations in Devonshire so strong and luxuriant as those at Escot." Against the backdrop of this beautiful corner of East Devon, visitors can solve the world class maze, letterbox around the estate (a kind of nature-based treasure hunt), watch the wildlife (including otters, birds of prey, wild boar and red squirrels), discover the Play Barn and the exciting forest play areas (including Forest Leap, a unique woodland drop slide) and enjoy our home cooked local food and delicious cream teas.

ESCOT ARE GIVING AWAY TWO FAMILY TICKETS TO OUR READERS - to win a set please send your name, address and telephone number on a postcard by Friday 3rd August: FAO Jemma Moore, DD&S Series of Newspapers Ltd, Unit 3 St Michaels Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB. This week's big screen releases

THE LORAX ^U

IN the walled city of Thneed-Ville, where everything is artificial and even the air is a commodity, a boy named Ted hopes to win the heart of his dream girl, Audrey. When he learns of her wish to see a real tree, Ted seeks out the Once-ler, a ruined old businessman outside of town in a stark wasteland. Upon hearing of how the hermit gave into his greed for profits and devastated the land over the protests of the Lorax, Ted is inspired to undo the disaster. However, the greedy Mayor of Thneed-Ville, Aloysius O'Hare, has made his fortune exploiting the environmental collapse and is determined to stop the boy from undermining his business.

Dr Seuss story with voices from Danny DeVito, Ed Helms, Zac Efron and Taylor Swift.

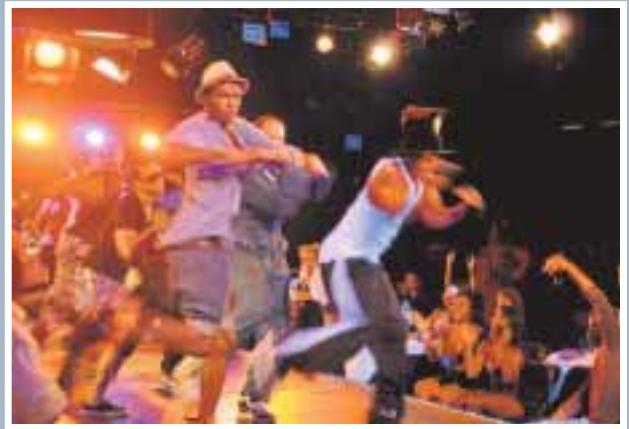

TED ¹⁵

JOHN (Mark Wahlberg) makes a Christmas miracle happen by bringing his one and only friend to life, his teddy bear. The two grow up together and John must then choose to stay with his girlfriend (Mila Kunis) or keep his friendship with his crude and extremely inappropriate teddy bear, Ted (voiced by Seth MacFarlane).

LEAVE IT ON THE FLOOR ^{12A}

BRAD is bullied by his dysfunctional mum; he flees his home and by chance tumbles down the rabbit-hole into the LA ball scene where he finds a rag-tag new family. With music by Beyoncé music director, Kim Burre, screen-play and lyrics by Glenn Gaylord choreography by Beyoncé dance master, Frank Gatson Jr. and eye-popping visuals and direction by Sheldon Larry, the film is an ode to the wild funky and heart-aching life of this amazing underground

Fiat 500 further enhanced with new colours and trim upgrades

THE popular Fiat 500 city car, which recently smashed through the 100,000 sales mark in the UK (more than 102,000 at the end of June), has been further improved with a range of bold new colours and upgraded interior trims that better match the exterior.

Six stunning new colours are introduced: Countrypolitan Yellow and New Age Cream solid paints, and Groove Metal Grey, Epic Blue, Chill-out Purple and Idol Pink metallics.

New Chocolate brown/Ivory fabric and Grey/Black fabric interior trim has also been introduced for the interior. New two-tone leather trims will be available at the end of the year, replacing and enhancing the current leather finishes.

A new 'short-fin design' antenna and 15-inch alloy wheels are also part of the design upgrade. Despite the product improvements, prices for the Fiat 500 have not changed, and the car still represents outstanding value for money.

The Fiat 500 range starts at £9960 (OTR) for the 1.2 Pop, rising to £19,060 (OTR) for the 500cbyGucci TwinAir.

Get tough on drink driving, say motorists

EIGHTY per cent of motorists say those who repeatedly drink drive should have their vehicles seized and sold or scrapped, according to a poll by the IAM (Institute of Advanced Motorists)1. Fifty per cent think that this should also happen to drivers several times over the limit.

The respondents were also behind reducing the drink-drive limit. Sixty-six per cent want to see the limit reduced, with most of these saying it should be lowered to a maximum of 50mg of alcohol per 100ml of blood. Twenty-eight per cent think we should have a zero-tolerance policy.

People convicted of drink driving generally lose their licence for a year and receive an average fine of £240. Fifty-seven per cent think this is too weak, and that punishments for drink drivers should be tougher – thirty-eight per cent much tougher.

Other findings include:

- Fifty-five per cent of poll respondents support a proportionate, graduated system of penalties, if the limit was reduced. For example, lower penalties would be given to drivers caught under the current limit, but above the new one.

- Almost half of respondents admit to having a drink while driving, within the current limit.
- Seventy-nine per cent say a decrease in the limit wouldn't affect their enjoyment of an evening out. Nineteen per cent said it would.
- Eighty-four per cent said a reduction in the limit wouldn't change their plans to go out.
- IAM chief executive Simon Best said: "The support is there for tougher treatment of drink drivers.
- "Not only do the majority want a lower limit – they also want tougher punishment for those that break the law, especially the worst offenders who present the greatest danger to other road users, their passengers and themselves.
- "Our poll shows a desire to see more effective drink drive levels as well as much greater consistency of enforcement, prosecution, and sentencing, which reflects the level of danger associated with drinking drivers."

Toyota Prius Plug-in delivers impressive ownership cost performance

THE Toyota's new Prius Plug-in delivers distinct advantages in terms of its extended all-electric driving range, exceptionally low CO2 emissions and, when running in full hybrid mode, excellent fuel economy. Not only do these contribute to strong environmental profile, they also support competitive day-to-day running costs for motorists.

As Prius Plug-in arrives in the UK, there is no other car on the market that exactly matches the benefits offered by its Hybrid Synergy Drive full hybrid powertrain: it offers the near-silent, zero emissions performance of an electric vehicle, being able to run on its lithium-ion battery for around 15.5 miles and at speeds up to 51mph. When battery charge runs low, the car's full hybrid system – which includes a highly efficient 1.8-litre petrol engine – takes over, so the driver doesn't have to worry about whether the car has enough power to reach its destination.

Compared to the Vauxhall Ampera, which uses a petrol engine as a "range extender" to support the electric motor, Prius Plug-in offers a higher specification, more seats on board and can save almost £2,000 on costs over three years/60,000 miles with its greater range and quicker battery charging time.

Independent car data specialist Kwikcarcost also rates Prius Plug-in a stronger proposition for company car drivers in terms of cost-per-mile, compared to the Peugeot 508 Hybrid4 saloon and Vauxhall Ampera. The Toyota comes in at 60.45p, compared to 69.12p and 63.55p for the Peugeot and Vauxhall respectively. In the course of a year – an average 20,000 miles – this will see the Toyota costing £700 less to run than the Vauxhall and more than £1,700 less than the hybrid 508.

For company car drivers Prius Plug-in attracts a 5 per cent benefit-in-kind tax rating for the first three years, rising to 13 per cent in year four. For fleet operators it benefits from a 100 per cent write-down allowance in the first year. And for all owners, the 49g/km CO2 figure means there is no annual road tax (VED) bill to pay, plus exemption from the London congestion charge.

BVRLA pushes back against fleet 'tax attack'

THE BVRLA has taken the first steps to counter the fleet sector 'tax attack' launched in this year's Budget.

It has written to HM Treasury to express concern over the business car tax measures outlined by the Chancellor and has assembled a 'Business Car Taxation Taskforce' to develop lobbying strategies and technical arguments against what it sees as discrimination against the sector.

The Budget announced last March introduced a series of changes to the company car tax regime and made it much harder for BVRLA members and their customers to claim tax relief (Capital Allowances) on lease and rental vehicles. Documents obtained by the BVRLA under the Freedom of Information Act show that the Government hopes to earn an extra £2bn from company car tax between 2013 and 2017 and make nearly one million fewer business cars eligible for 100% first year or standard tax relief during the same period.

The association believes that these changes will place an even more disproportionate tax burden on essential road transport users and remove a vital stimulus for the ultra-low carbon vehicle market.

"Tax incentives for reducing fleet emissions have worked too well and the government is worried about falling revenues", said BVRLA chief executive John Lewis.

"But these measures are ill-advised, unfair and over aggressive. There is almost total consensus across the road transport and automotive industry that the government is in danger of erecting a massive roadblock across the road to low-carbon motoring".

The newly-formed taskforce plans to commission an independent report that will use member statistics and other data to challenge unfair elements of the government's Capital Allowances regime. In particular it wants to reverse the decision to remove the 100% first-year capital allowances available on low-emission vehicles from leased cars, which would also impact rental firms.

The group will also seek to challenge the continuing application of the Lease Rental Restriction, which prevents companies deducting the full cost of leasing or renting certain cars from their taxable profits.

The BVRLA has already started trying to persuade the government to introduce a more gradual increase in company car tax for people driving cars emitting between 0 and 75g/km CO2 after April 2015. At the moment, these cars will go from either being taxed at a zero rate or 5% of their P11D price to a 13% rate overnight. It is already making company drivers hold back on choosing an ultra-low emission car while they re-evaluate the impact on their take home pay.

"We understand the need for austerity measures, but this assault on essential road users will result in more harm to the environment. It is even more misguided than the Pasty Tax," said Lewis.

Trio do Colfox proud at nationals

THE Sir John Colfox School once more proved their prowess at producing top athletes with three students representing Dorset at the recent English Schools Athletics held at Gateshead.

It is unusual for three students from the same school to be selected for the finals, and a remarkable achievement for such a comparatively small one as Colfox.

Ali Tuck was also given the prestigious task of captaining the county side in his second national finals, and from an e-mail received by the school from the team manager he did a great job.

Unfortunately nerves got the better of him on the day in the Senior Boys Hammer and he wasn't at his best.

Lucie Fry was another who was understandably nervous competing in her first event at this level, but did well in the Junior Girls 1500m, just missing the cut for the final eight by one place.

Holly Butt was making her third and most successful appearance in the nationals in the Senior Girls 100m.

She made the final, having not made it in her previous two attempts, and finished a very creditable seventh in the race which was covered by Sky Sports.

There was no disgrace in this when you consider the winner Daryll Neita of London produced a new championship record which has stood since 2004 with a time of 11.63 seconds.

Wakeboarding back in Lyme

WAKEBOARDING returned to Lyme Regis last weekend with Red Bull Harbour Reach challenging the best wakeboarders from across the UK and Europe to jump the huge physical structure of the Grade 1 listed harbour wall - longer and higher than seen in any UK competition.

The event played host to 14 of the best wakeboarders, with Industry Wakeparks building and installing a bespoke 'wakepark' especially designed for the harbour.

Competitors also performed tricks on a number of custom built features, including the first Quarter Pipe ever to be seen in UK competition.

There were no boats in sight towing the riders - a revolutionary towing system, the Sesitec System 2.0, towed tow athletes back and forth across the harbour and extended wakepark features.

LYME REGIS GOLF

Sophie Keech helps Millfield win HMC Foursomes

LYME Regis golfing star, Sophie Keech, was one of only two girls to feature in the annual HMC Golf Foursomes Championship, competed for by eight schools from across the British Isles.

The event held at Burnham & Berrow Golf Club was marred by some dreadful weather, however, all games were played which ended up seeing Millfield win the title.

After qualifying from one of two groups of four Millfield faced Whitgift School from South Croydon and came out 2-1 winners in a tough and tense final.

Sophie played some outstanding golf in the face of terrible conditions and with her partner, Adam Yates, returned with a 100 per cent four match winning record in the event to help Millfield to their national triumph.

Shortly after the event Sophie went to Yeovil to compete in the South West Ladies Golf Championship. Two 18-hole medal rounds would determine the top 16 qualifiers for a matchplay knockout to determine this year's champion.

Sophie continued her rich vein of form and carded an impressive 142 gross after two rounds, which was level par to lie second overall.

This gave her a second seed in the knockout stages, but unfortunately lost in her last 16 match against fellow Lyme Regis golfer, Jane Southcombe.

Sophie has a week off now before she contests four big tournaments in August, the first being the English U18 Championships at Cheshire in two weeks time.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Bridport triple win Westlands Famous Grouse tournament

BRIDPORT OUTDOOR

with Stuart Broom
BRIDPORT Bowling Club members Bill Payne, Brian Rumble and Chris Thorne beat off 23 other teams to win the Westlands Famous Grouse Triples tournament.

Split into two groups of 12, each team played four games in a random draw, with the winners of each group going through to the final and the runners-up playing each other for third place.

Bridport won all their four games, with Seaton the runner-up; Dorchester, despite being undefeated, could only finish second to Westlands in the other group on aggregate.

The final was nip and tuck and going into the last end the match was tied, but Bridport produced the bowls that counted at the death to win by two shots.

Dorchester beat Seaton for third place.

BRIDPORT LADIES

with Alan Brown
Bridport ladies did a smash and grab at Blandford in County League Division One by inflicting the first defeat for their opponents, 57 - 47, on their home green.

Gill Hunt, Barbara Iversen, Rosemary Brooks and Sue Hosking were always ahead and finished 21-9 winners.

Laura Taylor, Alison Tibble, Pat Cornick and Margaret Clapp came from behind to take six of the last eight ends to record a 23-16 victory.

Not to be outdone, Bridport's Division Two squad defeated West Moors on all three rinks 66-48 in a rearranged match.

Marion Tocher, Janet Bird,

Beryl Diment and Marion Carter finished strongly to win 23-14 and Joan Griffiths, Mary Corfield, Thelma Pratt and Therese Castle won six of the last eight ends to finish 23-17.

The third rink of Sylvia Smith, Ann Fox, Janet Tattershall and Dinah Wilson were always just that little bit ahead of their opponents to record a 20-17 success.

In the men's South Dorset League, Bridport A went to Greenhill and defeated their C team by 70 shots to 50.

The four of Roy Lidington, Keith Brooks, Brian Conisbee and Chris Thorne were again in devastating form capping their evening with a count of six on the penultimate end to finish 32-12.

Barry Shortland, Mike Smith, Brian Iversen and Brian Rumble got into gear midway through their game to go 22-9 ahead and eventually run out 27-15 victors.

The men travelled to Chardstock for a friendly match which Bridport won by the narrow margin of 64-62 with A.Skelton, Brian Pratt and Peter Scott finishing top scorers 24-7.

BRIDPORT INDOOR

with Brian Baker

JOAN HIGMAN, Ann Parkins, Tony Sharrood and David Conroy's Cyclists did a Bradley Wiggins this week, matching the Tour De France winner with a top class 20.7, 15.9 wins over Sailors and Wrestlers respectively in the Morning League.

Jill Spinney, Ann Harris and Peter Hunt's Sprinters kept top spot, 16.7 up against Gymnasts.

Equestrians were 16.6 up against Alan Barr and Sue and Brian Walsh's Divers but a sensational 8 and 4 count gave Divers a 18.16 win.

Pat Anderson, Wendy Symes and Chris Anderson's Sailors and Meg Gill, Regg Dodd and Margaret Pestelle's Archers 20.4, 15.5 up against Swimmers and Hurdlers respectively.

Eros lost their first match in the Evening League, beaten 12.20 by Bernard Waterman, Brian Toms and Ken Enticott's Helios.

David Cook, Phil Benton and Herek Harp's Pan took the week's top gods award, destroying Zeus 21.5.

Godon Lee, Liz Walker and Ivor Parker's Apollo, the sun gods, shone brightly with a 16.7 win over Hades.

Val and Reg Dodd and Margaret Pestelle's Aphrodite and Julia Baynes, Kevin Moys and Peter Hunt's Hermes were 12.9, 18.8 winners against Athena and Poseidon respectively.

An historic first ever match against the Outdoor Club held this Sunday proved a very enjoyable occasion, with the Outdoor Club winning 113.42 overall.

Spokesperson Brian Baker said: "We simply couldn't match the power of their play, but we are quite confident in beating them in the return on our carpet."

LYME REGIS with Paul Moffitt

IT'S BEEN a busy week for the club, especially for the ladies who have been doing a bit of catch-up from weather spoilt games.

Although I have the results for the ladies' games I do not have individual rink scores or personnel.

■ Bridport Bowls Club's winning triple of Bill Payne, Brian Rumble and Chris Thorne

The men's championship side went down by a single shot to Greenhill but only secured two points which is a bit galling.

No result to report from the A team's game against Melcombe Regis but the B team had a fine win against Melcombe Regis A.

The men were truly beaten in the semi-final of the County Cup playing a very superior Dorchester side who managed to win on all four rinks.

On Sunday the club hosted a representative game between Dorset and Cornwall basking as they did in glorious sunshine.

The ladies also had a fine win in the June Culpin Trophy match against fancied Broadstone.

A lucky 'wick' from skip Kathy Clissold secured an extra shot on the last end enabling Lyme to scrape home by the odd shot.

Three friendlies played this week but Lyme only managed to win one which was against Axminster.

PRE-SEASON FOOTBALL

Caddy heads East, Higgs to return to Fort?

LYME Regis Football Club will attempt to retain the Perry Street League Premier Division title without the services of pick-of-the-league goalkeeper Ashley Caddy. WRITES HOWARD LARCOMBE

Caddy, who has been pivotal between the sticks in what has been the most successful period in the club's 127-year history, has accepted a position with sports equipment company Woodworm in Hong Kong and will be heading off in September to join his girlfriend Faye Cable who is a practicing vet in the area.

When Caddy was unavailable last season teenager Will Meech was promoted from the Reserves to don the gloves. But Meech will be sidelined for the start of the season with a wrist injury.

One option for new Lyme manager Karl Diment is the experienced Chris Higgs.

Higgs, who has played for Axminster Town for the past seven seasons in the Devon & Exeter and South West Peninsula Leagues, lives a short distance from the Seasiders' HQ at the Davy Fort and is thought to be considering a return to Lyme colours.

The 31-year-old was a key member of the club's quadruple trophy winning team from 2004-05 having previously had trials with both Exeter City and Dorchester Town.

One new face at the Fort is Andy Dare who previously turned out for Uplyme and played rugby for Sidmouth RFC.

Lyme Regis Reserves/Bantams have been handed a tough-looking opening tie in the Combe St Nicholas-based Tom Facey Invitational Cup.

Lyme, who were beaten on penalties by Crewkerne Rangers in last year's cup final, take on Wellington on Friday - 6:30pm ko (at Combe).

It would appear that Combe have upgraded the competition, traditionally contested between players from the lower half of the Perry Street League. If the Seasiders were to progress they will face either South Petherton or Chard Town in the next round.

Meanwhile Lyme have been handed a home draw against Winsham United on Thursday, August 9th in the Chard Hospital Cup.

With the goalmouths at the Davey Fort currently being seeded the tie will be switched to Uplyme FC's Venlake Field.

INSIDE EDGE - DORSET CRICKET ROUND-UP

Dorchester turned over by Linge

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

Premier Division

DORCHESTER were well beaten by an incredible performance by former Dorset star Eric Linge, who scored 122 as Ferndown Wayfarers posted 200-4.

Linge was dropped on 25, a mistake that Dorchester would rue as the game would have been very different with a long Wayfarers tail.

Linge went on to take four wickets, including those of James Lewis and Dan Belt, as Dorchester paid the price for a sloppy fielding display.

Ferndown Wayfarers (200-4) beat Dorchester (96 all out)

● Other results: Weymouth (118-4) beat Blandford (116 all out)

Division Two

TOP side Wimborne & Colehill showed their class on Saturday. Simon Jones and Jack Walklett were the pick of the Beaminster bowlers on a really tough day in the field.

Dave Penman and Freddie Everitt provided some consolation with good knocks of 38 and 76 respectively.

After facing such an onslaught from Wimborne batsman, taking seven points from this match provided Beaminster with some satisfaction.

Wimborne & Colehill 2nds (331-4) beat Beaminster 1sts (207-7)

● Other results: Witchampton (176-8) beat Dorchester 2nds (160 all out); Poole Town 2nds (168-9) beat Martinstown (137 all out); Shillingstone (187-7) beat Weymouth 2nds (163 all out)

Division Three

BRIDPORT won the toss and chose to bat first. The wicket was hard and from past experience Bridport knew that you can score quickly at Portland.

Their innings got off to a bad start when Dave Herbert, returning from injury, was bowled for 0 by Simon Proffitt.

Liam Toohill joined Mark Smith at the crease and the pair managed to rebuild to get the score up to 42 before Mark fell LBW to Proffitt.

Toohill followed soon after, out to Chris Leake after playing one shot too many.

Bridport struggled to 82 for 5 when Luke King joined 14-year-old Cerne Iverson at the crease. Cerne and Luke batted brilliantly, Cerne showing great technique to hit a well crafted 30 on debut before being bowled by Leake. He put on a vital 65 with Luke, who continued after Cerne's dismissal and brought up his 50 with a monstrous six onto the roof of the pavilion. Ed Halson then dominated a last wicket stand of 37, hitting 25 not out including two boundary clearing shots.

Bridport thought this was around a par score; Portland have a good batting line up and it's easy to score quickly on their ground.

Bridport made a brilliant start with the ball – the seventh ball of the innings saw Toohill catch Sawyer off the bowling of Dom Gape when the score was on 1.

However, Simon Proffitt came in at number three and, along with the other opener, they started to take the game away from Bridport.

But the visitors did manage to pick up two further wickets with Proffitt going to a very good low catch from Dom Gape, and Brown was brilliantly stumped by Luke King off the bowling of Duane Gay.

There were a lot of positives for Bridport to take from the game. Cerne on debut batted brilliantly and has definitely kept his place in the team for the coming weeks.

Luke batted really intelligently, holding the innings together, and Ed did well to take Bridport over 200. The visitors' catching was brilliant and fielding was good. However, the bowling can be improved; they hadn't had the chance to bowl for two or three weeks now and it showed.

Portland Red Triangle (213-3) beat Bridport (211-9)

● Other results: Cattistock (119-6) beat Broadstone 3rds (113 all out)

Division Five North & West

A DEVASTATING spell of seam bowling from Dorchester 3rds' 14-year-old Matt Stevens saw him take 4-11 and destroy the Bridport 2nd XI's middle order to set up a comprehensive nine wicket victory at the Brewery Fields ground.

Bridport were asked to bat on a slow, low wicket, following the deluge of rain over the previous few weeks.

Bridport started cautiously against some accurate bowling from 13-year-old left arm debutant Tom Blair, who finished with 1-15 from his five over spell, and the pace of 15-year-old Jake Pike (0-25).

Blair's maiden wicket was to snare Sweet Ibw with a yorker for seven with the score on 41-1.

Another impressive young debutant was 14-year-old Dan Allen, whose lively pace saw Rob Jones edge a one handed diving catch to Jae Miller behind the stumps for one.

It was the introduction of the seam and swing of Matt 'Shakey' Stevens that was key, who took three wickets in four balls to reduce Bridport from 48-2 to 52-5.

Firstly Rod Gay tried to reproduce the lovely drive to the mid on boundary, from the previous ball, but the ball swung in to remove his leg stump for a good innings of 36.

Then two wickets in two balls – captain James Dollman extremely well caught by the diving Will Channon at mid on and then the ball of the day saw Steve Taylor bowled with a ball that moved back dramatically to hit the top of off stump.

Stevens' fourth wicket saw him bowl Chris Lewis for a duck, ending with a wicket maiden and Bridport struggling on 65-6.

Tony Gale and Mike Peat put together a good partnership of 33, which included some clean hitting from Gale (a six and two fours) before the spin of Sam Roles (2-13) saw him deceived by the flight and a simple catch was taken by Dan Morris at cover with the score on 98-7.

Only one more run was added as Roles bowled Azur and then 15-year-old Jack Eveleigh bagged his first senior wickets. He dismissed the final pair bowling Peat for 7 and then Morris took his second catch at mid wicket dismissing Andy Gay for 0.

Dorchester openers Dan Morris (14) and Jae Miller (57) managed to bat an awkward five overs before tea but came through this with 13 runs on the board.

Tight bowling from the evergreen Bridport opener Rod Gay and young Shaun Parker made it hard to score and patient batting was required. Morris brought up the 50 partnership with a handsome drive to the mid off boundary. Morris was dismissed for 14 when he was well caught by the diving Tony Gale off a leading edge with the score on 55-1.

Miller's innings showed great patience in difficult batting conditions and only included three scoring shots in his first 25 balls. His 50 included 6 fours.

Miller and Sam Roles (15) added the remaining 45 runs to see Dorchester through to victory by nine wickets in the 22nd over.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "Both teams fielded very young teams but it was the impressive bowling from Dorchester which won the day."

"Dorchester fielded three debutants in Tom Blair, Dan Allen and Fergus Johnson and all performed well. Man of the match was Matt Stevens and he is developing into a fine bowler at the tender age of 14."

"The third team is all about giving youngsters an opportunity to play senior cricket and for them to enjoy the game."

FRANCIS CLARK DEVON CRICKET LEAGUE

2nd XI D Division (East)

DEFEAT was snatched from the jaws of victory when Uplyme and Lyme Regis 2nds slumped to a five wicket loss at the hands of table toppers Exeter 3rds.

Batting first the hosts made steady progress with five of the top order making starts.

Opener Henry Perry (20) staved off the new ball in a first wicket partnership of 35 with Eddie Clarke (33).

Clarke was then joined by Dave Norman, whose superb knock of 66 saw the East Devon outfit reach 105 before the partnership was broken.

Youngster Tyler Wellman (20) hit his best total for the 2nds in a 36 run fourth wicket stand – but the departure of Norman, bowled by the visitors' star bowler Jit Singh, signalled the collapse.

Singh (6 for 24 from nine overs) ripped through the bottom order claiming four of the five scalps.

Only Wes Holmes kept his wicket as the bottom five batsmen made just six runs – including three ducks.

The collapse meant they finished on a modest 161 for nine and were going to have a tough fight against a team which had won by 207 runs in the reverse fixture.

The visitor's reply got off to a rocky start as they slumped to 75 for six as Uplyme held their catches – three of the top five batsmen were pouched. Mike Holding was the pick of bowlers with 2 for 33.

But then Brian Bosomworth (48) and James Vastone (32) dug in for an unbeaten 87 run seventh wicket partnership to see their team home with overs to spare.

Uplyme 2nds (six points) sit at fifth on 121 points after 12 games. Exeter 3rds (19 points) are 25 points clear at the top of the table with 179.

INSIDE:

Rowing success for Colfox at Dorset School Games

TWO teams from the Sir John Colfox School came close to winning titles in the final of the Indoor Rowing competition at the Dorset School Games held in Bournemouth recently.

Representing West Dorset the Year Nine boys came second and the Year Eight girls finished third.

This is a new sport to the school where students have been training for the past few months on indoor rowing machines under the expert coaching of Matt Tiffin, Chris Day and Michelle Tiffin of the Bridport Gig Rowing Club, who have given their time freely.

Michelle said: "It's been a pleasure running the training sessions and the results were fantastic with both teams getting so close."

The coaches were named the 'Sports Coach of the Year' at the recent school Sports Presentation Evening but were unable to attend.
